

BUNDESKUNSTHALLE

Invitation to a Media Conference
Thursday, 31 October 2019, 11 a.m.

Martin Kippenberger
BITTESCHÖN DANKESCHÖN
A Retrospective
1 November 2019 to 16 February 2020

In terms of the broad range of both the media and styles he employed, Martin Kippenberger (1953–1997) was one of the most productive German artists of his generation. Like no other, he embodies the image of the 'typical artist'; and like no other, he lived an inseparable symbiosis of life and artistic production – with great intensity and consistency. All his works are self-portraits in the broadest sense: They say something about him, his life situation and his environment – even those that do not depict an actual image of him.

His working methods include acting, performances, making exhibitions, organising and writing; his rich oeuvre comprises music, photographs, drawings, posters, collages, multiples, editions, artist's books, painting, sculpture and large-scale installations.
