

BUNDESKUNSTHALLE

Invitation to a Media Conference
Tuesday, 16 June 2020, 11 a.m.

STATE OF THE ARTS Video · Installation · Performance 16 June to 16 August 2020

The exhibition presents one of the most intriguing artistic phenomena of our time: the fusion of the visual and the performing arts. Today, more often than not, a visit to an exhibition does not merely offer new visual impressions. Instead, it is a more comprehensive experience that involves all the senses. Artists combine video, performance, dance and language, creating intermedial works. In some cases, this results in the visitors themselves becoming part of the work, forcing them to give up the distanced position of the viewer.

The fusion of the arts that causes the boundaries between the disciplines to disappear is a phenomenon of contemporary art that emerged in the 1960s. The term intermedia was used to celebrate the diversity of artistic possibilities, and experiments combining music, theatre, visual art and literature were launched. The Fluxus movement with its happenings and use of new media was especially influential in shaping this broader concept of art. Today in 2020, the extension of artistic media into all conceivable fields has long since become widely accepted. The exhibition brings together works that playfully move between different artistic disciplines – performative sculptures, sound works and multimedia installations as well as performances.

We cordially invite you a media conference in the exhibition on Tuesday 16 June, 11 a. m. The exhibition will open at 10 a. m. All current social-distancing rules apply. We advice you to wear face masks.

Participants:

- Eva Kraus, designated director of the Bundeskunsthalle
- Miriam Barhoum, program curator, Bundeskunsthalle
- Johanna Adam, curator
- Sven Bergmann, press officer of the Bundeskunsthalle
