

BUNDESKUNSTHALLE

Invitation to a Media Talk

Tuesday, 29 April 2025, 11 a.m., in the Salon, in good weather on the roof

INTERACTIONS X WEtransFORM

1 May until 26 October 2025

Since 2023, the Bundeskunsthalle has organised a summer programme of interactions around the building. This year, Interactions x WEtransFORM reflects the theme year of sustainability in dialogue with playful installations: In addition to a project by La Fabrique Terrestre on the roof, two other positions will be shown that represent visions for a more sustainable and future-oriented design of our environment: Tree.ONE by ecoLogicStudio in the foyer and the large wood and plant construction Vert by AHEC/Diez Office/OMC°C on the forecourt.

Once again, various locations in the public space of the Bundeskunsthalle will be occupied. The new works also invite us to play, reflect or linger, such as the sound installation RadiOh Europa by Action or Jonas Brinker, who presents Nightfall on the LED wall and in the media art room, a loving observation of fireflies in New York. Yawei Chen's Electronic Pets in the foyer explores how people in our rapidly evolving society use digital content for emotional comfort. Ina Weber's Rubble Tracks-Mini Golf and Dennis Fuchs's table tennis work Back and Forth playfully explore individual and collective competition and issues of equality and fairness.

Raul Walch's textile installation Carried by the Wind and Tomas Kleiner's Weather Birch also visualise the bridge between Interactions and WEtransFORM.

In the spirit of sustainable thinking, Jeppe Hein's water pavilion, Circular Appearing Rooms, Carsten Höller's Bonn Slide and works from last year, such as Temitayo Ogunbiyi's organic climbing frame, You will follow the Rhein and compose play (playground), and Olaf Nicolai's football goal walls, Camouflage/Torwand 1–3 [Croy, Kleff, Maier], will remain in place. The seesaws Controversy Teeter-Totter by Esra Gülmen and the high seats entitled Meanwhile by Linda Nadji will also be presented again.
